What it's like to share space with 26 people in 12 years

The business of van life

How the RV industry is falling short, and how van lifers are filling the gap

Ingenuous 189-square-foot apartment has everything you need

There are "tiny homes" and then there are truly tiny homes like this 189-square-foot apartment in Taipei.

A Popular Benefit of Houseplants Is a Myth

The science is clear: Indoor vegetation doesn't significantly remove pollutants from the air.

A new use for the spare room

Home-share programs match two generations facing loneliness and high housing costs

Welcome to Airspace

Yet other startups are creating this globalized sameness-as-a-service in a self-enclosed package, a holistic AirSpace lifestyle.

Paint it black

In Mar Vista, California, a fun family's bright, minimalist home hides behind a striking, dark facade
